Contractual Terms

Fishing & Hunting Expo - 6th edition

ROMEXPO, B1 Pavilion - March 17-20, 2022

I. THE CONTRACTUAL AGREEMENT

Completion and submission of the registration form agreement by the Exhibitor indicates his agreement to participate to the exhibition.

Booking requires full completion and signing of the registration form agreement by the legal representative; The exhibitor will wait for the confirmation of the Organizer regarding the designated space, not being able to choose or reserve the space without the approval of the Organizer.

Upon sending the registration form agreement, the Exhibitor confirms that he has understood and accepted the contractual terms.

The Organizer designates the location of the Exhibitor's booth and sends the location details to him.

The exhibitor has five days to confirm whether or not he accepts the location of the allocated stand. After this period, the contract between the two parties will be considered accepted.

The Exhibitor may not exchange the stand designated by the Organizer with other exhibitors, may not increase its area or modify its booth without prior consultation with the Organizer.

II. PAYMENT CONDITIONS

After receiving the complete registration form agreement, the Organizer issues the advance invoice of 30%, which must be paid within 10 working days. The Organizer will issue the invoice for the remaining 70% of the total value of the order (incl. technical services, marketing services etc.), and the Exhibitor is obliged to pay the invoice within the payment term, but not later than Feb 20, 2022.

The Exhibitor will be able to take over his booth only after he fulfilled all the conditions from point II.

Orders received after the event start will be paid on the spot, subject to availability.

III. BUILDING OF THE STAND

The height of the stands is 250 cm. Any other request regarding any specific height must be reported to the Organizer in writing. In case of non-compliance with the height limitations, the Organizer is entitled to order the dismantling of the stand.

In case of the self-built stand, the documentation of the technical plan must be sent to the Organizer by February 20, 2022, in order to be previously approved by ROMEXPO.

IV. VISITING HOURS

For the guests and visitors:

Between March 17-19, 2022, daily between 10.00 am and 06.00 pm and on March 20, between 10.00 am and 03.00 pm. Exhibitors are obliged to maintain their booths open between the visiting hours.

Working hours for the exhibitors

Between March 15-16, 2022, daily between 08.00 am and 10.00 pm (building and arrangements of the stands).

Between March 17-19, 2022, daily between 10.00 am and 06.00 pm and on March 20, from 10.00 am and 03.00 pm (exhibition time).

Between March 17-19, 2022, daily between 08.00 am and 10.00 am and 06.00 pm and 08.00 pm (supplies and filling up the stocks).

From March 20, 2022, between 03.00 pm and 10.00 pm and March 21, between 08.00 am and 04.00 pm (dissassembly).

Each Exhibitor will receive, depending on the rented surface, access bracelets for the crew, for the entire period of the event.

The Exhibitor will also receive, free of charge, a parking card for all the exhibition period, which he will have to return to the Organizer after the event.

V. EXHIBITORS AND CO-EXHIBITORS

Co-exhibitor is considered a company that presents its own products in another Exhibitor's stand. The Exhibitor is obliged to notify the Organizer if he has such as Co-Exhibitor.

VI. INSURANCE, PROTECTION OF THE GOODS

The exhibitor is obliged to protect and insure his products and equipments for the entire duration of the exhibition.

The exhibitor will be held liable if, during his participation in the exhibition, causes damage to a third party.

Throughout the event, the Exhibitor must have a valid liability insurance policy signed in order to prevent any unexpected damage or accidents.

The organizer cannot be held responsible for the disappearing of certain products from the exhibitors' stands.

VII. CANCELLING, COMPLAINTS

If the Exhibitor cancels his participation after signing the contract, but 30 days before the start of the event he will lose the advance paid of 30% of the amount for the space rent. If he announces his withdrawal less than 30 days before the start of the exhibition, he will lose the entire amount paid until then.

The exhibitor must announce in writing the cancellation of the contract, which will be considered valid from the moment he arrives at the Organizer.

The exhibitor is obliged to report any irregularities related to invoicing before the closing of the exhibition.

If the Exhibitor will not occupy the stand designated by the Organizer 24 hours before the opening of the exhibition, the Organizer may designate another company to occupy the respective stand. The late exhibitor will not receive a refund of the amount paid and is obliged to pay for all services related to the stand.

VIII. FORCE MAJEURE

Force majeure, agreed as that unpredictable and unavoidable event, which occurs within the availability of the contract and which prevents the party or parties from fulfilling their obligations under the contract, exonerates the party invoking it under the law. The case of force majeure will be communicated by the interested party within 2 (two) days from its appearance and will be confirmed by official documents authenticated by the competent authorities.

Evidence proving the existence of force majeure shall be submitted to the other party within 5 (five) days from the date of their issuance by the issuing authorities.

The termination of the force majeure event, confirmed by the Romanian authorities, will be communicated immediately to the interested party.

An exhibition may be canceled or the opening / closing date may be postponed in case of force majeure. The Organizer will inform the Exhibitors within 5 (five) days from the date of the force majeure event.

XI. TERMINATION OF THE AGREEMENT

The present registration for agreement terminates by right without any other formality and without the intervention of other parties, in the following cases:

a) at the expiration of the agreed period, if the parties have not agreed on the extension;
b) at the request of one of the parties which is unable to fulfill its obligations;
c) by agreement of both parties expressed in writing;

d) in case of force majeure, intervened for a duration of more than one day, which prevents the realization of the object of the contract, unless the parties establish otherwise;

e) if one of the parties does not exactly perform its obligations for more than 2 (two) days;

f) unilaterally, at the request of a party by 5 (five) days notice.

The Organizer reserves the right to terminate the registration form agreement if it finds that the authorizations, opinions, information and / or assurances provided by the Exhibitor are inaccurate, incomplete and / or if the agreed circumstances have changed.

Termination of contract requires overdue payment obligations.

XI. LITIGATIONS

The Parties shall endeavor to settle any dispute amicably. If they fail, and the subject of the discussion is of a legal nature, the parties will address the court in the area where the Organizer has its registered office.
